If you've never attended, GSMS trivia nights are a full evening of entertainment.

Here's what you can expect to enjoy:

- Eight rounds of trivia curated by none other than legendary host and Junior High guide, Mr. Andrew Garvey. The winning table takes home a prize and bragging rights!
- A charming array of silent auction items generously donated by school families with old-school paper bidding sheets. Plus a 50/50 raffle!
- Table themes are encouraged! A wide variety of decorations and even costumes will be on display. Popular vote for the best table theme—and a prize for the winners!

Tables and Tickets

You can purchase a table and bring your own guests or buy individual tickets and let us seat you. It's a great opportunity for your friends interested in Good Shepherd for their children to experience what we're about!

Meet Other Parents

We have tables set aside for parents from each level. So, if you want to get to know other GSMS parents in a casual, fun setting, this is your chance! Just let us know when you purchase your tickets what level you want to be seated with.

Food and Drinks

Guests usually coordinate with one another to bring snacks and drinks, including beer and wine, for their tables.

Can't Attend but Want to Help?

School families traditionally put together creative, themed baskets (or other vessels, like bags, buckets, tubs, and more!) to raise funds at this event. If you would contribute a basket or sponsor us to create one on your behalf, please email office@gsms.org. So, rally your fellow parents, family, and friends, and secure your tickets for an evening of trivia, laughter, and camaraderie on February 6th!

Please note: This event is strictly 21+.
